Eight years ago New York city went wild over little Hofmann. He created an excitement the like of which we did not see until Paderewski appeared here in 1832. He was such a little fellow that it looked almost as though be could be carried away in the pocket of a greatcoat. He was only ten years of age, but he played the piano marvelously. Gerry tried to stop his playing in the public, claiming it was injuring the boy's health. The father said: "But what am I to do? I am poor and I am earning this money to complete little Josef's education."

Commodore Gerry then said: "Will you take him off the stage for six years if you receive money enough to support yourself, his mother and him, and to give him the best instruction for that length of time?"

The father replied that he would gially do so, and Commodore Gerry within a week raised a sum of money sufficient to yield a yearly income of five thousand dollars. This he placed in the hands of trustees, who were bound to remit to Mr. Hofmann in quarrierly sums for six years. The lad was taken back to Europe, became the favorties pupil of Rubinstein and only a few weeks ago appeared again in public, justifying by his playing the highest promise of his boybond days.—

Then, before he got off the scale, he,

In a little while it was announced that he was at hand. The weeping widow said: "Howdy, Sue?" She then, with a voice full of mournfulness, asked if he was happy in his present state. The spirit yawned and answered: "Yaas, bout as happy as I was on earth. Don't seemuch change." Then she said: "Where are you at, John?" He said: "Hor he he said: "Where are you at, John?" cult Problem Which Gotham's reway Has Presented to the Consctors—How It Is Boing Solved - Watched with Interest.

Sime of the work on the Speedway, as contractors who are doing it have already found out, is going to cost much more than the preliminary estimates of the park department engineers, says the New York Heraid. The city will, of course, will have to pay for it finally, but mean while as the costs roil up inclineers are very greatly interested in a process to which the added expense will be due. It is no more or less than freezing quicksand. The work is going on at a point in the ground along the Harlem river, which will he eyen longer and deper before the work is of a character to peculiarly interest engineers. Though somewhat similar steps have been adopted once or twice in the history of engineering science before, never have the same intricate problems been presented as now. The success of this experiment will he watched, therefore, with interest. Its cost will prohabily be in the neighborhood of thirty-five thousand doilars.

James D. Leary has the contract for constructing the section of Speedway upon which this unusual effort, is to he made, and, curlously enough, the difficulty was encountered in the final fifty feet of his contract, which extends only from One Hundred and Fifty-fifth street to High Bridge. The work necessitates sinking a retaining wall to a rock foundation along the river side of the Speedway, and engineers' sounding rods atruck a detached stone here or not is not certain, but it has developed that hard bottom is probably twenty for the wall's foundation had to be adopted.

Sawart & McDermott are doing this work, and they have introduced several new ideas into it. The pian is to freeze the hank whence the flow of mud and sand comes, so that a solid wall will be formed, next which the excavation will be sunk to the required depth—probably thirty-five feet or more. To accomplish this a row of four-inch pipes about three feet apart, capped at the bottom, have been sunk perpendicularly to a depth of forty feet. Into each a smaller pipe, open at the bottom, has been inserted to within an inch and a half of the bottom. By means of a huge condenser cold air is forced through the small pipes into the larger and returned for further service into the condenser. It has been received the two the condenser. the larger and returned for further service into the condenser. It has been possible thus to use air cooled by expansion to about fifty degrees below zero, and the effect of this intense cold upon the flowing mud and quicksand has been to solidify it. With a coffer dam to exclude the water of the Harlem the excavation is now being slowly sunk to rock. Some time will be required to complete this intricate work, but it is expected to prove a success in the end.

A Girl in Gray.

A Girl in Gray.

A certain auburn-baired girl ap peared at an evening party not long ago in a simple gown which made her look like a picture. It was of sheer gray organdle made over mouse-gray satic, the outer skirt being very full and edged with fluttering rulles. The blouse was combeased of gray satia ribbon, three inches wide, atternating with creamy white iace, with a beautifully finished edge which iapped over the selvedge of the ribbon. Ahout the neck was worn a dog collar of silver. The sleeves were immensely gird, the tightly fitting lower arm buttoned with silver ornaments to match the collar, Gray silk stockings and gray suede gloves completed the picture, which any red-baired girl may duplicate for very little.—N. FLOORED THE FAKIR.

Printed Lecture Had No Answer for That Question.

A new fair struck town list week. He was new in two senses, says the Buffale Express. He hadd't been long in the husiness and his fakement was a novelty. He was a young fellow from a Connecticut farm, whom the king of fakirs, who does husiness in Grant street, New York, had invelgied into buying the "territorial rights" for western New York, had invelgied into buying the "territorial rights" for western New York for a burglar aiarm, which consisted simply of a paper cap, such as children use in their toy pistois, fitting into a socket near the catch in a window frame. When a burglar attempted to open a window by manipulating, the catch, so the inventor's theory ran, there would he an explosion sufficiently loud to waken the householder and result in the cracks mon's capture. The cap and socket nearly laughter out dishe he buyer's friends. They could he affixed to a door, which the victim could then he induced to open. "Imagine his construction and the hearty laughter of the assembled company," etc.

The new fakir did pretty well at first. He selected an eligible corner on a buy street and usually had an open-mouthed crowd around him. On the second day fate sauntered along in the person of a sad-eyed, thoughtful-invowed man, who listened for awhite and then interrupted the lecturer thus:

"Will you allow me to ask you a question, mister?"

lecturer thus:

"Will you allow me to ask you a

"Ct'nly, sir," replied the fakir.

"Well, then, suppose the burgiar knows the cap is in the window and pulls the sash down from the top instead of shoving up the lower baif of the window to which the alarm is affixed—what provision does your device make for such a contin pency?"

The fakir thought for awhile. The fakir thought for awhile. No such emergency had been provided for in the printed lecture which he had bought with his "territorial rights." He hemmed and hawed and quibbled, but he had no answer ready. The crowd appreciated the fact and jeered and meited away.

That night an idea came to a broken-hearted man who was riding in a hoxcar toward Cleveland. It was the failed fakir. "Why, durn it," he said to himself, "a man couldn't craw in through the top of a window without shoving the sash down far enough to touch the catch and strike the cap. Why didn't I think of that when that feller was joshing me this afternoon?"
But it was then too late.

It has hect the boye and prayer of all farmers in the southern and western parts of Whitman county for several years past that some kind of a contagious disease would break out or could be inoculated into the troublesome ground squirrel. Several attempts have been made to breed some kind of a disease among them, but all seem to have been utsuccessful. In view of these numerous unsuccessful "attempts, anys the Arl-

In view of these numerous unsuc-cessful attempts, any the Ari-zonian, and the interest taken in the matter, considerable comment was caused a few days ago by the report coming from near Penawawa that there was some kind of disease which was killing the pests in large numbers, and the country, might hope to be free from their devastat-ing ravares.

numbers, and the country_might hope to be free from their devastating ravayes.

A Spokesman-Review correspondent has made an extensive trip through the infested district, in order to investigate the authenticity of the reports and the extent to which the disease is proving fatal. There seems to be no doubt that there is a contagion among them, which is proving fatal to a few, though not to the extent that has been represented. The first effect on the animals is to make them dumpy and stupid, then scabs and sores appear on the hody of the animal, and soon they lose the use of bleir hind parts and are barely able to get around. Very few dead squirries were found, but the animals seem to be less numerous than they were a few weeks ago. The decrease in numbers is explained by some observers by the fact that the females have gone in their holes to have their young, but it has also been noticed in districts where the young squirrels are old enough to get out of their holes. Already been noticed in districts where the young squirrels are old enough to get out of their holes. Already preparations are heing made to spread the disease. Inquiries come from all over the country concerning the authenticity of the reports, and the effect it is having to decrease the numbers and ravages of the nests.

and the effect it is having to decrease the numbers and ravages of the pests.

But while the farmers are anxtously watching the outcome of the infection, they are hy no means idle in aiding nature to destroy their enemy. Traps, guns, bombs and all kinds of polsons are used in aid of their destruction. One Colfax firm has aiready soid over five hundred ounces of strychnine, and other polsons in proportion. Arsenic seems to be springing into favor as a destroyer, but some who have been experimenting with it report rather unfavorably. Since the success of the western one-third of this county depends almost entirely on the discovery of some method which will promptly and effectively exterminate and the subjections to that end are thankfully received and given a fair trial. In Spokane councy five hundred patent bombs for the extermination of squirrels have been received by the county commissioners for distribution among the farmers.

Results of Advertising.

When I talk to a man who has made a fortune by advertising I wonder that anybody who has anything to sell does not go and do likewise. One man told meaday or two ago that his concern, with a nominal capital of $160,000, only $30,000 of which was paid in, has divided in a single year among three partners profits to the amount of $750,000, and that exclusive of salaries of $50,000 and $25,000 drawn hy two members of the firm. Ten or twelve years ago this man was a drug clerk on a small salary in a western town, and is now one of the millionaires of New York. "Without advertising I might have made a living," he said, might have made a living," he said,
"but it was advertising that made me rich, and advertising a v. 7 simple commodity at that."

The reported Indian troubles in the West last week were almost wholly imaginary. There were no bloody out breaks and no cause for alarm from either the Banuocks or Shoshones.

ouisville has some citizens with distinguished names who sometime get into trouble. For instance, "J. D. Olardy" was last week flued for fight-ing-smd "Jno. D Carroll" married a widow.

The New York Mercury is taking a poll on the question, "Shall the Uni-ted States resume the free coinage of ted States resume the tree comes silverent 16 to 1 without waiting on other nations?" The last report browed 32,052 ayes and 1,783 noes.

The Owensboro Messenger calls at-tention to the fact that Mr. Watterson remain to the fact that Mr. Natterson would for, Boies, a rank free silver man, for president, in the Chicago convention, side by side with Jno. S. Rhea. This fact had been overlooked in the excitement of Marse Henry's convenient for could campaign for gold.

The Louisville Star's diagram mixing up the KENTUCKIAN and other state papers with the factional fight in the Democratic party of Louisville needs another dig am to explain what it means. Some people never apear to worse advantage than when they try to do something.

The New York Mercury's silver selection, conducted upon the plau originated by the Chicago Record, resulted in 32,052 votes for and 1,783 against free silver. Among the most enthusiastic free silver men in New York is Congressman Chas. H. Tur-ner, of the Sixth district.—Owensbord Messenger.

County Judge Richie, of Jefferson county, who is a Republican, has in-vited the chairmen of the Republi-can and Democratic county commit-tees to submit to him lists of names from which election officers will be appointed this month If Judge Breathitt of this county would adopt this plan his course would meet the approval of fair and conservative men of all parties.

Bro. Walton, of the Stanford Jour-nal, who by-the-way will bring a charming young bride with him next month, has this month, has this to say of the press meeting here in 1878: "The Hopkinswile people are already beginning to put the big pot into the little one and the skillet in that in preparation for the entertainment of the members of the enternament of the memoers or the Kentucky Press Association. Those of us who enjoyed the meeting of that body there 17 years ago know how delightfully the Hopkinsvillians entertain and are looking forward to glorious times next month."

It is a fact worthy of note that the Linn organs in their abuse of "Boss Meacham" have kindly refrained from calling him a fool.

It took hard work to get Bradley to agree to those joint debates. When confronted with a business proposition for forty discussions, he couldn't be brought to the talking point on more than a dozen of them. The Republican champion was ready to holler 'nough before time was even called.

If anybody is still giving credence the absurd story that the editor of to the absurd story that the editor of the Kentuckian is to be Judge Morthe Kentickianis to be Judge Mor-row's Master Commissioner, we desire to again brand it as false in fact and malicious in its conception. We would not have the place if it were off-ered to us on a silver waiter, and furthermore we know that Judge Mor-row has made no promises, deals or bargains for this position. Can Judge Linn say as much?

The Louisville Democrats seem be in a very bad way. Col. Jno. H.
Whallen, the deposed chairman, announces that he will support Judge Simrall, the independent candidate for appellate court judge. The split in the party is a serious one and if both Simrall and Eastin run through there can be but one logical result— the election of Du Relle, the Repub-lican candidate. The situation is still further complicated by the presence on the track of an independent Democratic candidate for the legislature from Jefferson county.

In the convention at Ow last June, it was the 8 votes of In the convention at Owensboro last June, it was the 8 votes of Calloway county, thrown to Moore one the final ballot, that dropped Frank Richardson by two votes when Demosey had loaned Moore all of the votes he could well spare. The Calloway delegation was controlled by friends of Judge Linn who refused to let the Christian county candidate have even built the vote of Callowar which Christian county candidate have even half the rote of Calloway, which would have kept him in the race against Dempsey at the wind-up. Here were delegates present who protested that Richardson was undoubtedly their county's second choice, but Judge Lim's friends turned a deaf ear to their appeals and voted against Richardson and Christian county. It comes with a poor grace now, in the face of these facts, for Calloway county to send a candidate inloway county to send a candidate in loway county to send a candidate in-to Richardson's own town to beg for political favors. Yet this spectacle was prescuted last week. Ceasar tells us all Gaul was divided into three parts. At least two of these parts must have been inherited by Judge Linn and his Calloway county friends.

Blackburn made another ten strike u Saturday's legislative nominations, ecuring four and perhaps five of the seven nominees made in Democratic districts. In Frauklin, Col. E. H districts. In Frauklin, Col. E. H Taylor who came out about teu days ago in opposition to Jas. A. Violett, understood to be a Buckner man, was defeated by 831 votes. It had been evident for several days that Col. Taylor, could not defeat Violett, who had been a candidate for months. In Nelson county, Isaac Wilson defeat-ed Harry McKay, the Blackburn can-didate. In Alber county I. H. Hau. ed Harry McKay, the Blackburn candidate. In Allen county, J. H. Hau, cock was nominated by a convention and in Livingston and Crittenden Nichols beat Adams, single standard candidate. Both of these are Blackburu men and for free silver. In Calloway, A. D. Thompson was renominated and as he is from a strong silver county he may be counted for "Joe". W. C. Holland, a Blackburn man, won easily in Lvon and Marman, won easily in Lyon and Mar-shall, counties that were voted against silver in the recent conven-tion. In Ballard and Carlisle, there There are politicians in Christian for silver and the gold champion may county who supported Laftoon over he for silver and the gold champion may he for silver and the gold champion may be silver anks. Hon. Fenton Sims, norm recovered from the suicidal effects of going against a home man for an trick, is a strong silver man and alticly in the silver and the silver county who supposed by the control of the county who supposed by the control of the county who supposed by the control of the county who received 1800 votes. Nobody of the county who received 1800 votes. Nobody of the county who received in Christian who was a Laffoon received in Christian who was a Laffoon received in Christian who was a Laffoon received in Christian who was about 31 to 35 rotes in the county who was about 31 to 35 rotes in the count recent summary in the Courier-Jour-nal and figuring from that. Black-burn now has about 33 to 35 votes in sight, or within perhaps ten votes of a majority of all the probable Dem-ocratic votes. These hewill find with-out trouble in the nominations yet to be made in silver counties like L be made in silver counties like Logan, Daviess and McCracken. One or two more "killings" like last Saturday will remove any lingering doubt that Joe Blackburn will succeed himself in the senate as the champion of the people's rights.

The political situation in this county is rapidly clearing. It is becoming evident to the most casual observer that the bottom has dropped out of the small and feeble boomlet launched last week for Judge Linn. Judge Morrow will have no serious opposition in his own county. Politicians will not commit political suicide, the will not commit political suicide, the fighthite Democrats will not permit one of their number to be sold out or traded off, and the people will rally to their own trusted leader all over the county. Now and then a man can be found who still says he is for Linn, but in fully half of the precinets in the county if there is a Linn man he has not made his presence known. The only danger to Morrow is that the lack of opposition enough to stir up his friends will cause the vote to be lighter than it ought to be. If the vote is as much as 2,000 or more Morrow's majority will be not les than 1,500 in Christian county. In no event do we believe that Judge Linn of the state of the county is the state of the county. event do we believe that Judge Linn can muster more than 200 votes in the county.

The Jumbo Wind Engine Now Popular in Kansas.

Curious Contrivance for Fumpin Fater to Moisten Arid Plains - Ita Simplicity and Economy Is Its Recommendation,

A crude invention called the 'Jun bo" wind engine is now coming into extensive use in western Kansas.
Its ease of construction, economy in cost, capacity, in power and simplic-ity, seem to recommend it to those ity, seem to recommend it to those who observe its work.

It resembles, says the Louisiana Planter, the paddlewheel of a stern-wheel boat, with a shaft twelve or fourteen feet long, is twelve or sixteen feet across, with six or eight arms.

The lower half of this wheel is shielded from the wind, so that the sir acts only upon the upper vanes. A crank upon one end of the shaft connects with a pump.

Its power can be indefinitely increasing its length, which can be done by anyone who is handy with tools. It is said that a "lumbo" giving one hundred horse power in a fifteen-mile wind can be put up at a cest of five sand that a "dumbo giving open dared horse power in a fifteen-mile wind can be put up at a cost of five hundred dollars. The wind acts upon this sort of paddlewheel from all points of the compass except all points of the compass except two.

It seems to require no "governor," but simply pumps more during a storm. No tower is required, and it is placed so that the radical arms will be clear of the ground. In fact, in Kanass, where there are few trees and no bills, it is claimed that the wind currents have greater force at the surface than high in air.

One of these wind wheels, now running in Kanasa, is twenty-one

Perhaps in this crude device for raising water for irrigation in a wind-swept country there is the germ of an idea which, when fully developed and perfected, may become widely useful. A WICKED PHOTOGRAPHER

He Gets People to Pose and Then Walks Away.

The circus was in town and with it the customary grist of countrymen, who were fooled in the same old ways that are told about in story books, says the Syracuse Post. Not less than two score of them were victimized by just one man, and that, toe, in the face of numbers of their fellowmen.

The victimizer was a common photograph "fiend."

If eoperated anywhere a crowdould be found. He would gather to gether several women or single persons, whom he would induce to stand for pictures. He would spend several minutes posing them; some he would get into the most fantastic positions. When he had them ready, with a crowd gaping at them, he would silently fold up his apparatus positions. When he had them ready, with a crowd gaping at them, he would silently fold up his apparatus and walk away amid the imprecations of the victims and the laughter of the audience.

The excursions of the bicyclist into every civilized corner of the land have brought out for the first time a very important industrial fact, namely, that a fortune is awaiting the inventor who can put upon the market a cheap, compact bath, preferably of tin, just large enough to hold sufficient water for a washdown, but of convenient shape for handling and stowing away. To for handling and stowing away. To the wheelman there is no greater luxury than a both at the end of high long spin, and he is comparatively seldom able to get one. Although our American cities are, on the av-erage, it a bead of European cities in provisions for promoting hygienic conditions, and the personal cleanli-ness of their inhabitants, our rural districts are far behind. In many willages there is not a single bath to be found, and many of the inhabit-ants are not even as conscientious in the matter of abultions as the vil-lager who maintained that "he took a bath once a year, whether he needed it or not." With the spread of athietic sports the practice of

He had acquired this terrific sobriquet from an inveterate habit of swearing, or rather from that phrase being his favorite oath. He was no ordinary swearer, no mincer of dreadful words, no clipper of the king's curses. Being a man of vicinty sucress. Being a whole troop of modern swearers.

The custom of shutting his eyes and launching headlong into a torrent of biasphemy, such as might, if properly divided, have set up a whole troop of modern swearers.

He seemed to think that provided it did not "sin with his eyes open" hid in on the at all; or It was perhaps nothing but a habit. Whatever might be the cause or purpose of the habit, it was once made the means of playing off upon him a most admirable hoax. Beling one evening in a tavern along with two neighborling country gentlemen, he was, according to a concerted plan, played upon and irritated. Of course, we soon shut his eyes and commenced his usual thrade of execration and blasphemy. Am I blind?" "Blind!" exclaimed one of the company; "what should make you blind?" "Why, I can see nothing," answered the sinner. "That is your own fault," coolly observed his friend; "for my part I can see well enough," and he drank a toast as if nothing had happened. We know that it sounds quackish talk about the Electropoise curing incurable diseases, but bear in mind the fact that is the old treatment which has pronounced the case incurable. We do not make the claim that we can cure all so-called incura ble diseases, but we do maintain with with all earnestness that a case pronounced incurable by your family physician, is a splendid field for the operation of the Electropoise. It may be just the treatment necessary and is quite likely to be so. If it fails, this is no argument against the "Poise," but in such a case, the fact of the physician's statement is proven to be true.
